

Supporting high net worth individuals to resolve financial disputes

Family financial disputes

01

02

Personal financial
disputes

Shareholders' disagreements

03

04

Matrimonial
disputes

Financial disputes between high net worth individuals can be complicated and frustrating. They divert time and attention from other important personal financial affairs. Bringing in professionals will help draw clarity to the issues and can expedite resolution of disputes.

How PwC can help

Receivership

Independent professionals to manage the disputed assets pending resolution of legal proceedings

Asset management trustee for minors

Manage maintenance for minors pursuant to wills or Court orders

Expert witness

Testify in court regarding financial investigations, asset tracing, business valuation.

Litigation support

Support your legal team to bring clarity to accounting and financial issues

Settlement

Start Proceedings

Asset tracing

Identify potential assets and fund flows

Duxbury calculation

Estimate a capital sum pursuant to one's financial needs.

Financial investigation

Investigate spending history possible financial misappropriation and asset dissipation.

Valuation

Valuation analysis, critique valuation models, business valuation

Financial
dispute stages

Enforcement

Discovery

Investigation & Evidence

Consult expert

Options for mediation or arbitration

Trial

Personal Financial Life Cycle

Timely use of professionals helps to achieve a better outcome

Contact us

Victor Jong

Mainland China and Hong Kong Restructuring & Insolvency Leader

victor.yk.jong@hk.pwc.com

+852 2289 5010

Chris Chin

Partner

chris.chin@hk.pwc.com

+852 2289 2530

Gabriel Tsui

Director

gabriel.tf.tsui@hk.pwc.com

+852 2289 1077

Mavis Fung

Associate Director

mavis.ws.fung@hk.pwc.com

+852 2289 2544